MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

CALL YOUR OWN PLAY! September is the time when lots of folks imagine themselves as the quarterback of their favorite football team. In fact, the term “Monday morning quarterback” refers to all of us who talk about how we would have run plays differently in games that didn’t turn out the way we wanted them to. ESCC wants to help you be the quarterback in the game of your own life. What play do you need to call to get that promotion or raise or even a new and better job? Do you need to upgrade your skills? Do you need to learn a whole new set of skills?

Maybe you’d like to explore the health care field. The Personal Care Aide class might be for you. You can expand your health care career options with the Personal Care Aide Program. We also have Hair Weaving and Braiding and computer classes that can help you jump start a new career.

Be the quarterback of your own life and sign up for any of the courses in this schedule to help you get the skills, training and certifications you need to call your own play for career success!

ESCC's Workforce Investment Act (WIA) Youth Program

WHAT IS THE WIA YOUTH PROGRAM

The 2000 federal Workforce Investment Act includes a youth component designed to link academics with occupational skills and employment. Local programs offer year-round services and are designed to:

- provide an objective assessment of each youth participant, including a review of academic and occupational skill levels, as well as the service needs of each youth
- develop an individual service strategy for each participant that identifies an age-appropriate career goal
- provide preparation for post-secondary educational opportunities
- provide linkages between academic and occupational learning

On the Eastern Shore, Eastern Shore Community College holds a contract from the Bay Workforce Investment Board to provide WIA youth services.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE FOR SERVICES?

- The purpose of the program is to help young people who are at risk of not completing an educational program.
- An individual must be between the ages of 14-21, low income and meet at least one of the following barriers to employment:
 - School dropout (individual is no longer attending any school and has not received a secondary school diploma or its recognized equivalent);
 - Basic skills deficient (individuals that have English, writing or computing skills at or below the 8th grade level on a generally accepted standardized test;

- Pregnant or parenting
- Homeless, runaway, or foster child
- Offenders
- An individual (including a youth with a disability) who requires additional assistance to complete an educational program, or to secure and hold employment. This is locally defined in each local workforce investment area.
- Though younger youth ages 14 – 16 can be served by law, Virginia's WIA Youth Coordinator has directed youth providers to use resources to fund youth who are at least 17.

WHAT SERVICES CAN BE PROVIDED? WHO PROVIDES THEM?

The required program elements include:

1. Tutoring, study skills training and instruction leading to the completion of secondary schooling including dropout prevention strategies
2. Alternative secondary school services
3. Summer employment opportunities directly linked to academic and occupational learning
4. Paid and unpaid work experiences including internships and job shadowing
5. Occupational skill training
6. Leadership development opportunities

A Career Pathways Model of Success: Academic and Career Coaching

Eastern Shore Community College has three models of academic and career coaching for students. These coaching programs are far reaching and serve students in local high schools as well as at ESCC. The titles for these various forms of coaching and positions are represented by the following: High School Career Coaches, Adult Career Coach, Experiential Learning/Job Placement Coordinator, Success Coaches and Program Specialist.

High School Career Coaches are ESCC employees who work in local high schools alongside guidance counselors to assist students with the development of individual career plans and portfolios, making informed decisions about academics as relates to career choices, connecting to early college programs such as dual enrollment, and easing the transition from high school to postsecondary education and training. These coaches are instrumental in helping students to plan early, complete college and financial applications, participate in job shadowing opportunities, and effectively navigate the wealth of information available online for colleges, careers, industry certifications, jobs, and more.

The Adult Career Coach and Experiential Learning Job Placement Coordinator work with students at ESCC and with clients at the Virginia Employment Commission. These positions are funded through the Department of Labor as part of a special project operated by the Virginia Community College System entitled the Trade Adjustment Assistance Community College and Career Training Grant Program. The Adult Career Coach helps prospective and currently enrolled students in numerous ways. For instance, skill and career assessments are administered, programs of study at ESCC are explained, the enrollment process is facilitated, and short-term goals are established. The Experiential Learning/Job Placement Coordinator works with many of the same students to assist them with job readiness skills such as cover letter and resume writing, mock interviews, review of job applications, and work-based learning opportunities such as internships. Through the collaborative effort of these positions students receive guidance from start to finish with their chosen program of study or training program.

The Success Coaches, with the assistance of the Program Specialist, work primarily with students who are considered to be at risk of not reaching their educational goals. This project serves selected students who meet one or more of three criteria: first generation college student, race/ethnicity, and income level. This retention program aims to assist students who may have a number of barriers that would impede successful completion of a plan of study. Success Coaches inform students about resources at the college and in the community that can help them in overcoming obstacles; thereby, maintaining a successful academic and career pathway. Success Coaches, also, work as tutors in the areas of math and English and teach student development courses. Whereas the coaching models described above have distinct differences, they do have a strong bond and a common thread: Helping Students Achieve Success! So, who are these coaches and how can they be reached?
