

ESCC Course Delivery Modalities

1. ON CAMPUS – traditional, on campus; room location is available in the schedule of classes
2. Zoom - VIRTUAL – 100% online via required Zoom sessions during scheduled days and times (synchronous)
3. VIRTUAL – 100% online any time; no scheduled meeting days and times (asynchronous)
4. HYBRID – combination of any of the above

Important: Log into MyESCC (your student portal), click on CANVAS, click on and view each of your classes to locate important course information including assignments and deadlines.

Contact information for instructors and staff may be found in the ESCC directory:

1. ON CAMPUS:

In this example, there are days, times and a classroom number indicating this is an on-campus class:

The screenshot displays the 'Class Search' interface. On the left, the 'Search Options' panel includes fields for Term (2021 Summer), Subject (Student Development), Catalog #, Campus (Any Campus), and Instruction Mode (Any Instruction Mode). There are 'Reset' and 'Search' buttons, and a checkbox for 'Show Open Classes Only' which is checked. On the right, the search results show '2 Classes Found'. The first result is 'SDV 100 - College Success Skills' with details: Section: H1-LEC (14335), Session: 8 Week, Days/Times: Mo 1:00pm - 2:15pm, Room: 148 Classroom, Instructor: Kentrelle Walker, Dates: 06/07/2021 - 08/02/2021, Status: Open, and Notes: Click here to see important class notes. The second result is 'SDV 101 - Orientation Topics' with details: Section: H11-LEC (22472), Topic: Orientation to Health Care, Session: 8 Week, Days/Times: Tu 5:00pm - 6:15pm, Room: 207 Classroom, Instructor: Bonnie Nordstrom, Dates: 06/07/2021 - 08/02/2021, Status: Open, and Notes: Click here to see important class notes. Blue arrows next to the class details indicate that clicking on them leads to more information.

When viewing a class such as the one above, click on it to read a detailed description of how the course is delivered in the NOTES section. The note here says “all on campus with no Zoom option”.

When clicking on the class and viewing the NOTES section, it is described as:

Zoom online; class meets online during the scheduled days and times using Zoom conferencing software.

3. VIRTUAL – NOT ON CAMPUS, NO SCHEDULED ZOOM SESSIONS:

100% online classes appear with odd days and times such as Sundays at 1:07 AM. For these classes, students work remotely and independently with course materials and do not attend class on campus or via Zoom during any scheduled days and times.

When clicking on a class and viewing the NOTES section, it describes it as:

Anytime Online; delivered online without any required Zoom meetings; students have firm deadlines for tests and assignments; students have live access to an instructor each week through Zoom, phone, chat or email.

The screenshot shows a 'Class Search' interface. On the left, there are search options: Term (2021 Fall), Subject (Administration of Justice), Campus (Any Campus), Instruction Mode (Any Instruction Mode), and a checked box for 'Show Open Classes Only'. There are 'Reset' and 'Search' buttons. On the right, under '2 Classes Found', two classes are listed: ADJ 100 - Survey of Criminal Justice and ADJ 111 - Law Enforcement Organization & Administration I. Each class listing includes details like Section, Session, Days/Times, Room, Instructor, Dates, Status, and a link to class notes.

4. HYBRID:

Some classes may be delivered in a combination of any of the above. Reading the full description and notes for all classes will explain this. Additionally, here is an example of a class in which the lecture is 100% online anytime and the lab is held via Zoom. Note that some instructors may make Zoom sessions available for later viewing. Details will be shared by the instructors.

The screenshot shows a class listing for 'BIO 150 - Introductory Microbiology'. It lists two sections: Section: V1-LEC (10979) and Section: Z1L-LAB (10967). Each section listing includes details like Session, Days/Times, Room, Instructor, Dates, Status, and a link to class notes.
