

Interested in the Healthcare Professions?

Learn the “Fundamentals of Dental Assisting” at ESCC

Earn a Continuing Education Certificate

This course will prepare students to enter the Dental Assisting career field, and is the first step to earning the National Entry Level Dental Assistant Certification. Students will receive a combination of classroom & clinical training, and are taught by Dr Randi Wingate with Eastern Shore Rural Health. Meets Tues & Thurs evenings, 6:30-8:30pm, Jan 11-Mar 10. Tuition of $700 includes text book and supplies.

Students must have HS diploma or equivalent, and current immunizations.

For More Info Call 757-789-7979

Eastern Shore Community College

Workforce Development Services

... set a course for success